ABOUT

Jassie Gift is an Indian film music composer & playback singer. He composes songs & sings for Malayalam, Kannada, Tamil & Telugu films. He became famous after the success of his song "Lajjavathiye" from the film 4 The People. He has won various awards, including the Film Fare Awards for the Best Music Director. Before entering films he composed for a couple of albums in Malayalam, including the hit album Soona Soona, also composed singles. He pioneered the use of reggae fusion music in the Malayalam music industry with the backing roots of Indian ragas.

Gift's first film composition was for the movie Saphalam. His songs written for the movie 4 The People became hits in Kerala, especially "Lajjavathiye", his music contributed to the success of the film, which became 2004's biggest Malayalam film. The film was later remade in Tamil, also as "Malliswarive" in Telugu. The song was successful in all languages. Jassie Gift mixed Indian & western music on the album, Rain Rain Come again, as well as the music for the Kannada film Hudugaata, the songs "Eno Onthara" "Mandakiniye" & "Ommomme Heegu". He has worked with South Indian musicians such as Harris Jayaraj, Devisri Prasad, Yuvan Shankar Raja, M M Keeravani, Anirudh Ravichander & collaborated with many music directors from south India. Dr. Jassie Gift holds a PhD in Philosophy on the topic of "The Philosophy of Harmony & Bliss with Reference to Advaita and Buddhism". Jassie Gift has been appointed as the chairman of Kerala State Development Corporation for Christian Converts.
